Re: ALDE Party Bureau – Position of Treasurer

Dear Didrik,

I write to you to formally nominate Mr. David Burke for re-election to the Treasurer position on the ALDE Party Bureau.

Since first being elected as Treasurer, David has consistently demonstrated his tireless commitment to ALDE and ensured that the finances of the Party are managed in a responsible, transparent, and professional manner. Over the past four years, he has shown an unwavering dedication to supporting ALDE member parties and fulfilling his mandate with integrity, and I am confident that he will continue to do so in the term ahead.

As a qualified Chartered Accountant, David's professional background with both KPMG and PwC has equipped him with significant expertise, which he has successfully applied to his work within ALDE. During his tenure with Fianna Fáil, he oversaw a professionalisation of the Party's Fundraising, Financial and Campaigning model. The value of this experience has been clearly reflected in his service on the Bureau.

David is a professional of the highest integrity and his record on the Bureau demonstrates both competence and steadfast commitment to ALDE's mission.

I wish him every success with his candidacy, and I respectfully ask delegates to the forthcoming Congress to give his candidacy their full and positive consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Seán Dorgan
General Secretary
Fianna Fáil
